Mr. O. Osterrieder, long and favorably connected with the great Peter Schoenhofen Brewing Company, has opened a big advertising agency at Room 509 Harvester Building, 608 S. Michigan avenue. Mr. Osterrieder is a square man who deserves the support of the liberal element who want good advertising.

The New Roma restaurant at 117 North Clark street is attracting attention by its fine bill of fare and its splendid cooking. Mr. L. Pellegrini, the well-known restaurateur, is the manager.

CHICAGO HAS ESSANAY

Big Film Company Closes Other Establishments and Concentrates Its Studios Here.

Chicago now has exclusively, the biggest film company in America.

With the opening of a new studio, the third on the north side, the Essanay company has chosen its two outside establishments, one in Niles and the other in Los Angeles, preferring to concentrate its efforts in Chicago. Of the four prominent concerns identified with the film industry, Selig, Essanay, Kleine and American, Essanay is the only company with a permanent producing plant in this city.

Selig takes the pictures at his studio in Chicago intermittently, while in Edendale, Cal., he produces plays continuously; the American has its studios in Santa Barbara, Cal., and conducts its business affairs in this city; and Kleine's producing activities are in the Bronx, New York City.

The Essanay studios are equipped with artificial lighting facilities which enable its producers to stage plays in all sorts of weather, while the days of sunshine are devoted mostly to exterior scenes. George K. Spoor, president of the company, has been a persistent booster for Chicago on account of its central location.

"I have always believed that Chicago is the natural distributing center of the United States," he said, "and for the shipment of goods excels any other American city for centralization. I closed my western studios and increased my Chicago holdings because I want the plays produced by our company to be as close to the distributing center as possible.

"It is not necessary to go to California for sunlight; artificial light makes an ideal substitute, and you need not fret over rain and clouds. While in the past capital was represented mostly in the east, there is a trend toward this city in that direction. I believe that both manufacturer and distributor of motion pictures logically belong in Chicago on account of its central location and railroad facilities."

Nelson N. Lampert should be nominated and elected State Treasurer.

William M. Morrison, the well known photographer, whose studio is located in the Schiller building, is one of the substantial and highly respected residents of the North Side. He is much talked of for Alderman of the Twenty-first ward.

John F. Gattie and James H. Pye, proprietors of the Central Barber Shop, 107 West Madison street, cater to the finest trade in Chicago.

Judge Thomas F. Scully has shown since his election to the County bench that he is the right man in the right place. He has met every question raised concerning the election machinery with ability and firmness. The people are proud of him.

Judge John R. Newcomer has made a fine record in the Municipal court. He should be re-elected.

Emil Banett of Webster avenue and Bissell street is one of the leading pigeon fanciers of the country. His place is a great resort for owners of homing pigeons.
